Volunteer Roles

In addition to your Section Leaders, Auxiliary Committee, and Group Council there are a number of volunteer roles that help groups run more smoothly. These can be filled by non-rover adults.

General Group Volunteers

Website and Social Media Manager

Keeps the website up to date and posts to social media accounts.

Recruitment Coordinator

Advertises the group and recruits prospective members through outreach to local schools and organizations.

Fundraising Coordinator

Plans and leads fundraisers in coordination with the group council and the group treasurer.

Grant Writer

Seeks out and writes grants to secure additional funding for the group.

Meeting Volunteer Roles

Keep in mind that all parents working with kids should be background checked through National.

Otter & Timberwolf Parent Helpers

Help scouts with activities, help keep track of scouts

Activity Leaders

Plan and lead specific activities that they have expertise in. This is a great way to demonstrate specialized knowledge or skills.

Campout Volunteer Roles

Campouts involve extra volunteer needs! Here's a list of campout-specific roles that may be helpful. Your group may have slightly different needs, but this will hopefully get you thinking about everything that goes into running a group campout. Having a SignUpGenius as part of your registration process helps with getting enough volunteers for each role. Volunteers can certainly sign up for more than one job over the course of the weekend, as well. Remind your families that many hands make light work!
