Volunteer Roles

Why OSG | Starting a Group | Group Organization | Finances | Recruitment | Volunteers | Youth Protection | Inclusive Scouting

In addition to your Section Leaders, Auxiliary Committee, and Group Council there are a number of volunteer roles that help groups run more smoothly. These can be filled by non-rover adults, but keep in mind that all adults working directly with youth should be background checked through National.

General Group Volunteers

Website and Social Media Manager

Keeps the website up to date and posts to social media accounts.

Recruitment Coordinator

Advertises the group and recruits prospective members through outreach to local schools and organizations.

Fundraising Coordinator

Plans and leads fundraisers in coordination with the group council and the group treasurer.

Grant Writer

Seeks out and writes grants to secure additional funding for the group.

Meeting Volunteer Roles

Keep in mind that all parents working with kids should be background checked through National.

Otter & Timberwolf Parent Helpers

Help scouts with activities, help keep track of scouts

Activity Leaders

Plan and lead specific activities that they have expertise in. This is a great way to demonstrate specialized knowledge or skills.

Campout Volunteers

Campouts involve extra volunteer needs! Visit the Campout Planning Guide for a list of suggestions.
