

Making a Difference

This is a meeting that lends itself well to having a speaker for the service badge, maybe a government official or an activist. They can talk about how their job makes a difference in the community. You could also do a service project in the second half of the meeting.

  - Toss a ball to another otter and pay them a compliment
- Talk about kindness and doing good turns
  - How did it make you feel when someone said something nice about you?
  - Review the otter law: An otter is always busy and bright and helps other people by doing a good turn every day!
  - What is a good turn?
  - How does doing good turns impact those around you? Your community? The world?
  - What good turns have you done for others in your life lately?
  - What good turns can you do for others this week? (Have them share at the next meeting what they did!)
