Otters have short attention spans and like to run around, so meetings should be kept engaging and lively. We have compiled a database of Otter Meeting agendas that can be used and modified to fit your group's needs.

Opening and Closing Ceremonies

When starting an Otter meeting, you have a few options. You could sing "Otters on a Cedar Log", review the motto, law, or promise, or begin with the Otter Invocation:

Playful Master of the element of Water, Please teach me to swim joyfully through life. As you leap and dive and slide, May I also remember that play is essential to survival. Help me take pleasure in sharing and receiving, At ease with the world's abundance. Help me to move with quickness and grace, Adapting to any environment. Help me to remain curious, Ever seeking new perspectives and experiences, Open to love and laughter and all the mysteries Above and below the surface of my life.
